Participants live in Eisenstadt where Haydn served the Hungarian nobility for more than 30 years. You'll unpack once – and have an opportunity to truly get to know this quaint town which fostered the genius of Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, and others. In no time at all, you will be calling Eisenstadt your “home away from home”.

The Classical Music Festival

Join us for thirteen exhilarating days in historic Eisenstadt, Austria – the city of Joseph Haydn!

You will have the unique opportunity to study and perform in the same setting that fostered the genius of Joseph Haydn, Beethoven, Liszt, and others – in amazing venues like St. Stephen's Cathedral, in Vienna, Bergkirche in Eisenstadt, and the Esterházy Palace, considered one of the great historic and acoustically perfect concert halls in Europe.

You will fly to Vienna's International Airport for arrival on August 3rd. Festival staff will meet you at the airport on that day and bring you to Eisenstadt on festival provided buses.

Message from Dr. Z

If you are looking for an intense and rewarding music experience in a culturally rich setting, join us in Eisenstadt! We will work hard but you will also have time to enjoy exploring Eisenstadt, going to Vienna, optional daytrips, chamber music concerts, lectures, and more. Unquestionably, one of the most exciting features of the festival is rehearsing and performing in these amazing and historically significant venues which helps bring classical music alive for today's musician. The cost for the 13 days is very affordable compared to other festivals, tours or singing vacations – plus I'm confident the experience will change your way of hearing and performing the music of the world's greatest Classical period composers. Come join us!
